

Application for the Solidarity fund - academic year 2023-2024

General conditions:

- The school Solidarity fund regards only Hungarian or non-French children. The parents must be Hungarian tax residents (children with French-Hungarian dual citizenship can exclusively apply for a French scholarship at the Embassy of France).
- The application for the Solidarity fund is available on the school website (www.lfb.hu).
- Scholarship application deadline: Friday, March 24th, 2023. The application file must be fully completed, scanned and sent by email to gestion@lfb.hu. In case of missing documents, please provide a written explanation and justification. Otherwise, incomplete application will be automatically rejected.
- The maximum amount that can be awarded is of 50% until the end of « Collège » (from CP to 3^{ème}) and of 80% for the « Lycée » (from 2nd to Terminale).
- The scholarship applies to tuition only and does not cover optional school services (daycare, supervised studies, AES, etc.), food or school bus expenses. The school trips can be supported up to the amount voted by the Foundation's Board of Trustees.

Regulation of the LFGEB's Solidarity fund committee

Permanent members:

- The President of the Foundation of the Gustave Eiffel French School of Budapest (LFGEB),
- The Treasurer of the Foundation of the Gustave Eiffel French School of Budapest (LFGEB),
- The Principal headmaster of the LFGEB,
- The Headmaster of the Primary School of the LFGEB,
- The Executive director of the LFGEB,
- The Deputy director for the Secondary and Senior Education Advisor of the LFGEB

Members have the right to vote. In case of absence of the majority, the vote of the Principal or that of his designated representative is predominant.

1. Budget Allocation of the Commission

Within the framework of the budgeting of the Foundation of the LFGEB, the School Board fixes an overall envelope assigned to "scholarships". This amount is allocated into two accounts:

- The scholarships themselves
- Support for school trips

The scholarships are awarded by distribution within the limits of the amounts assigned by the Board of the Foundation for this endowment for the budgetary year. This justifies that the theoretical quota basis can be revised downwards in order to take into account the real number of eligible applications.

2. Eligibility for scholarships

Only families whose children do not have the French nationality and having their tax domicile in Hungary can file a scholarship application for their child/ren enrolled in the LFGEB.

Consequently, French and binational children (French – third nationality) are not entitled to it.

The families cannot claim a scholarship during the first four years of attendance.

The grant cannot be allowed more than four times for one child during the whole schooling in the French school of Budapest, except in exceptional cases.

Specific cases of employees' children:

The scholarship can be granted to a Foundation employee's child provided that he is working under a permanent contract at the time of the application and meets the allocation criteria, namely, actual and consistent presence of the child in the school.

The granting of a scholarship is not compulsory for the Foundation employees. However, the percentage granted to an employee's child cannot be reduced during his school cursus unless a significant change in the financial situation arises or other exceptional case linked to default attendance default from the child.

Expenses or taxes related to the possible granting of a scholarship and/or of a specific financial support for the children of the staff are included in the budget of the scholarships.

3. Approval of Rules and Regulations

Families wishing to file an application for scholarships approve internal regulations of the scholarship committee and sign them.

4. Solidarity fund restrictions

If the Committee, by any means whatsoever, realized, during the school year, that a family has made false statements, it may cancel the awarded scholarship and claim to the family the full rightful tuition fees. This family may no longer require scholarships to the Foundation.

In case of non-payment of the invoices issued by the Foundation by their due dates, the Committee may cancel the awarded scholarship and claim to the family the full rightful tuition fees. This family may no longer require scholarships to the Foundation.

5. Preparation of the committee meeting

Families will find on the school's website the campaign schedule concerning the scholarships, the downloadable files necessary for the applications, as well as these rules and procedures to follow.

The timetable available on the school website has to be respected. Any application not submitted in time will be automatically rejected.

The application file must be fully completed, scanned and sent by email to gestion@lfb.hu. In case of missing documents, please provide a written explanation and justification. Otherwise, incomplete application will be automatically rejected.

Applications delivered on time are subject to accounting and tax expertise conducted by the Accounting Firm of the Foundation.

In the case of doubt concerning the sincerity of the declaration, a visit could be made before the commission meets.

Not later than one week prior to the committee meeting, the application files of the families, as well as the synthesis tables preparing the committee meeting are made available to members of the Committee for consultation.

6. Committee meeting

At the opening of the session, members have the minutes of the previous committee, the application files of the families and the synthesis table showing the proposed schedule for the new scholarship season and indicating, for each applicant, the theoretically calculated quota.

By agreeing to participate to the local scholarship committee meeting, each participant agrees to comply with the principle of confidentiality governing the proceedings, and in particular, not to divulge any components of the examined individual files, and not to repeat any views expressed during the discussions.

Decisions of the Committee shall be taken by a majority of the members present at the meeting, except in exceptional cases listed.

7. Examination of the application files

The scholarship is for eligible families who enroll their child/ren in the LFGEB as described in article 2 indicated above.

The scholarship is awarded exclusively on tuition fees and school trips. Other ancillary costs are not subject to any specific financial assistance from the Committee.

The granting of a scholarship depends on the financial and asset situation of the child's legal representative(s).

The committee examines the application files according to the same method of calculation which is used for scholarships awarded by the French government, namely:

- The definition of a real net family quota:

$$Q_f = ((R_n - F_s) / P) \times (100 / IPA),$$

where:

- Q_f is the real family quota of the tuition fees (expressed in €Paris);
 - R_n is the net income;
 - F_s is the tuition fees (in the strict sense, excluding extracellular costs);
 - P is the number of units associated with the size of the family (2,5 units for a couple with one child, 2 units for a single parent with one child, 0,5 unit per additional child);
 - IPA is the index of purchasing power parity.
- The rule for calculating the quota:
 - The theoretical quota which can be granted as a scholarship for a family depends on the real net tuition fees quota of the family:
 - if the quota is bigger than 6.300.000 HUF, the family is not eligible for a scholarship.

- if the quota is less than one seventh of the maximum quota, that is to say 900.000, the family receives a scholarship covering 80 % of the tuition fees.
 - if the quota is between 3.000 €Paris and 21.000 €Paris, the quota of the scholarship granted to the family is proportional to its own quota.
- ➔ $X\% = 1 - (QF - 3.000) / (21.000 - 3.000)$

The maximum amount that can be awarded is of 50% until the end of « Collège » (from CP to 3^{ème}) and of 80% for the « Lycée » (from 2nd to Terminale).

The committee may make an exception to these rules. In this case, the committee must justify and write down the reasons of the exceptional decision in the minutes of the meeting, and also indicate the uniqueness of the case. The exceptional cases can only be accepted by unanimity of the members of the committee.

The applicant must complete a scholarship application form and provide all the documents supporting his/her applying for the scholarship.

Various cases:

- a) The application file is clear and complete concerning the required supporting documents, the committee does not express any reservations in relation to the family: the theoretical quota proposed on the synthesis table is validated by the Committee.
- b) The application file is incomplete: it will be automatically adjourned. At the end of the meeting, the committee will send a letter of request for additional documents to be submitted in 8 days. The file will be then discussed in a second committee meeting. If after reviewing the file and the provided documents, the application is considered complete and compliant, the Committee can give a valid opinion and accept the application. If the provided documents do not comply, the application is definitively rejected by the Committee for the school year.
- c) If after examining the application file, it shows an inconsistency between the declared income and the noticed living standards: the application is rejected, or accepted with revision of the theoretical quota, or adjourned during the first committee meeting and a letter requesting additional information is sent to the family.
- d) If a recent or very near change in the financial situation is proved: in the first committee meeting, the theoretical quota is maintained with the possibility to review the file during the second committee meeting by stating in the minutes all the elements justifying this proposal.

8. Minutes of the committee meeting

The minutes are signed by the President of the Foundation and the School Principal of the LFGEB after review and approval of all the permanent members of the committee and after having listened to the opinion of the consultant member.

In the week following each committee meeting, families are informed by mail of the decision concerning their scholarship application. This letter indicates the date of the second committee meeting which examines adjourned application files or other applications on appeal from the decision of the first committee, and fixes the deadline for submission of additional documents.
